AnyLogic Professional Team License

The prices do not include any VAT or Sales Tax that may be applicable to the order.

Team license allows multiple users to share AnyLogic without physically moving a dongle between their workstations. A Team License can be purchased and used in parallel with other types of licenses: dongle-based and software-activated.

The Team License is implemented as an AnyLogic Team License Server — an application with a web interface that is installed on a corporate server (the server should have a Windows operating system). The Team License Server keeps track of the number of AnyLogic copies run concurrently and allows you to view and manage AnyLogic usage.

PLE edition is free of charge and available for education and self-education. Please feel free to download and use AnyLogic PLE straight away.

AnyLogic PLE features are described in details at AnyLogic's website.

Pricing scheme of maintenance extension

- Maintenance and technical support for one year commencing on the date of initial purchase are provided for free;
- The extension of the maintenance and technical support is optional;
- If you regularly extend the maintenance and technical support for the license the price for that service will be a regular one;
- If you skip two or more years of the extension, you will have to pay the full price of the license for the service extension according to paragraph 7C of the Software License Agreement:
